

R E S U M E*CURRICULUM VITAE (To Present)

Edward G. Robinson
P. O. Box 859
Friendswood, Texas 77549

SYNOPSIS: Since 1999--president/owner, Professional Engineering Inspections, Inc., a real estate inspection firm.; 6 years--Vice President of Professional Engineering Inspections, Inc.; 6 years--Professional Engineering Inspections, engineering student co-op.; Student design experience--As a student in a senior project for M-I Drilling Fluids

EDUCATION: BSME (Mechanical Engineering) The University of Houston, Houston, TX. Elective courses in Non-Destructive Testing and Material Science. TAREI sponsored courses @ Texas A & M College of Engineering
Post Tensioning Institute Level 1 certification inspection course.

PROFESSIONAL HISTORY:President & Inspector (1999-Present):

Professional Engineering Inspections, Inc. Managing the company and performing residential, commercial, and special inspections in the Houston area. Development of new technologies within the company for data collection and report presentation.

Vice President (1993-1999):

Professional Engineering Inspections, Inc. Managing the company and performing residential, commercial, and special inspections in the Houston area. Adapt and maintain computer software for preparing engineering field forms, compiling detailed inspection reports and general office operations. Evaluation and Training of TREC licensed inspectors.

Engineering Student co-op (1987-1993):

Professional Engineering Inspections, Inc. Performed mechanical and electrical inspection and collected field data for other inspection types. Implemented the use of PC based information systems during the phase out of dedicated word processors. Adapted and Developed computer software, based on replaced proprietary word processors systems, for use on PC based platforms for preparing engineering field forms and compiling detailed inspection reports. Maintained office computer equipment and software.

Student Design Experience:

(1992-While enrolled as a student at The University of Houston Cullen College of Engineering) Contracted to M-I Drilling Fluids by the University of Houston as part of a senior industry project for a senior design class. Group leader of a student development team. Developed a filtrate receiver for collection of drilling fluid filtrate during test procedures. In charge of project scheduling, documentation, design of data acquisition, and final presentation of design. Various summer and part-time jobs (1987-1992). Earned 80% of college and living expenses as warehouseman of a refrigeration supply company, assistant to an A/C contractor, and engineering student co-op.

LICENSES, REGISTRATIONS & MEMBERSHIPS:

Licensed Professional Engineer (State of Texas, #87035)

National Academy of Building Inspection Engineers (NABIE.org)

Building Inspection Engineers Certification Institute Certified (BIECI.org)

Certified International Code Council Residential Inspector

Member of Houston Better Business Bureau